DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. This Office Action is in response to the Amendment filed on October 22, 2008 and the Supplemental Response filed on November 25, 2008. The Amendment cancelled Claim 56 and amended Claims 1, 11, 15, 24, 29, 30, 49, 50, 53, and 55. Thus, the currently pending claims considered below are Claims 1, 4-8, 11, 13-16, 24, 25, 29-32, and 49-55.

Specification

2. The new drawings filed with the October 22, 2008 Amendment overcomes the objection in paragraph 3 of the August 18, 2008 Office Action. Thus, the objection is hereby withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1, 4-8, 11, 13-16, 24, 25, 29-32, and 49-55 are allowed.

Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The invention pertains to processing rebates for debit and credit card transactions, wherein the rebates are placed in an education fund for the customer. The amendment filed on October 22, 2008 added the limitation that the processors track all debit and credit card purchases from registered merchants. As per discussions between the Examiner and Applicant (e.g. see Interview Summaries of 09/23/08 and 12/03/08) the tracking is taking place outside of the merchant site, for example, at the credit card processing center or the banking facility processing the debit card transactions.

Per the Non-Final Rejection of August 18, 2008, prior art was found which (a) provides an investment account, provides at least one registered merchant, provides a rebate system manager, monitors sales by the merchant (at the merchant site), calculates a rebate for each transaction, and updates the investment accounts with the rebate amount (Hartt et al, WO94/04979 A1, pages 3-6). Prior art was also found in which the investment account is an education account (Atkins et al, US 5,644,727, column 10, lines 51-59) Prior art was also found which discloses that the rebates are based on credit and/or debit card transactions (Fernandez-Holmann US 5,787,404). Upon further search the Examiner also found prior art (Feidelson et al, US 6,345,261, column 11, lines 5-30) which discloses tracking and monitoring the credit/debit card transactions at the credit card processing center or bank card processing center. However, in a 131 Declaration filed on November 25, 2008, the Applicant has effectively sworn behind that reference; thus, rendering the proposed rejection moot.

Therefore, since no additional prior art has been found which discloses these feature, the claims are considered to be patentable wherein all of the credit and/or debit card transactions of registered merchants are tracked and monitored at the card transaction processing sites and not by or at the merchant sites, in order to determine which of the transactions are from registered customers; thus, entitling them to the rebate processing.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
